

Short-Term Program in 2026

We will open the Short-Term Training Course from September 7 to 18 2026. This course is intended for working people (e.g. employees of food product companies, teaching staff of universities). During the course, the participants will acquire knowledge and skills used in the production of packaged food and beverages. A certificate of completion will be issued at the end of the course.

If you would like to participate in the course, please send us the application form that you can download from the web. You will be notified by e-mail if your participation is approved. Application deadline is June 30, 2026.

If you need VISA to visit Japan, please contact us. We will prepare an invitation letter for you.

The course fee is 80,000 Japanese yen / participant. Please note that we do not provide the accommodation service, breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Please make your own hotel arrangements
